Is that of what the lately?
You had to drown me so dee-ep
And pour your secrets out of your past

I'm still in training class

Said how could I've not seen?
But I won't sit here wasting time
Drowning in your lies

Drowning in your lies
This is lullabies

And I know
Said we blended on the wrong side of the road
Said what's a wolf with no hero?
So the sunny days we dried our love for
But you go ahead ready for another one

And I know

Just go
Up and out my home
You've done me so wrong

Said we blended on the wrong side of (the road)
Said what's a wolf with no hero?
