

Static

Ari Lennox

Oh yeah, yeah, yeah
Hey, hey

You're in control, love
Don't let the static drown us
You're in control, love
How good you are, I know, love

I can't get a signal
Maybe I'm too cheap
Or maybe I'm too broke
For settling for you
Tell me who needs cliché HD
You're perfect for me

When you're kind, fine like a Sony in '99
And, you're strong, fun
Get the job done, baby, you're the one
When you're kind, fine like a Sony in '99
And you're strong, fun
Get the job done, baby, you're the one

You're in control, love
Don't let the static drown us
You're in control, love
How good you are, I know, love
I know, love

Baby your issues are foggy
But I don't care, I need you near
I can fill you with distant memory and time
You'll help me sleep, hauntin' nightlight
You're perfect for me

When you're kind, fine like a Sony in '99
And, you're strong, fun
Get the job done, baby, you're the one
When you're kind, fine like a Sony in '99
And you're strong, fun
Get the job done, baby, you're the one

You're in control, love
Don't let the static drown us
You're in control, love
How good you are, I know, love
I know, love

Hey, your white noise, white noise
Give it all to me
White noise, white noise
I hear ya callin'
White noise, white noise
Give it all to me
White noise, white noise
I hear ya callin'
White noise, white noise
Give it all to me

White noise, white noise
I hear ya callin'
White noise, white noise
I hear ya callin'
White noise, white noise

As long as it's you
As long as it's you
Hey, as long as it's you
As long as it's yours
