Warm

Ariana Grande

I can find my way, never needed anybody to stay, to stay
I've been the one to slip away
Never thought I'd find another could fly here at my pace

If you dare, meet me there
I'll be higher than the exosphere
'Cause I know now, I'm safe and sound
And I won't come down for you

'Cause I'm cool
On my own
But it's warmer
In your arms
'Cause it's nice to unravel, tears, how they travel
Happy ones tonight
'Cause it's warm
In your arms

Can you hold the space I require or will you turn the page, the page?
Will you love me like it's true? Am I just on your to-do-list?
I promise either way

If you dare, meet me there
I'll be higher than the exosphere
'Cause I know now, I'm safe and sound
And I won't come down for you

'Cause I'm cool ('Cause I'm cool)

On my own (On my own)
But it's warmer
In your arms, mm
'Cause it's nice to unravel, tears, how they travel
Happy ones tonight
'Cause it's warm
In your arms

It's so good, it's so close, I can taste it
On my lips, this is your invitation
If you dare, meet me up here
Meet me up here
There's only this, this
It's so good, it's so close, I can taste it (Close to you)
On my lips, this is your invitation (Close to you)
If you dare, meet me up here (If you dare)
Meet me up here
There's only this

'Cause I'm cool (It's so good, it's so close, I can taste it)
On my own, mm (On my lips, this is your invitation)
But it's warmer (If you dare, meet me up here)
In your arms, oh
'Cause it's nice to unravel, tears, how they travel
Happy ones tonight
'Cause it's warm, 'cause it's warm
In your arms
