

Mindless

Arid

Mindless, mindless
Weightless, falling
Floating through all space and time

Lights are out
You are gone
This place becomes me

White walls
This empty hall breathing

My life is yours alone
Here in this bottomless hole
We are standing lost souls like lost souls
Lost souls lost souls
Ooh lost souls

No need to say goodbye
No need to call there's hope for all
Baby it feels like a riot in the heart
You can't deny it
And this time when the sun breaks it shimmers through with heartache
Baby like the tears we're falling
Wash away the years
I'm saying I would like to get through Summers like we used to
I know this thing will fall through
And I can never see you again

Timeless, timeless
Weightless, falling
Through the days, the cracks in time
I can see the world dissolving
Spinning around and out of time

We can't put this off forever
Got to make it work somehow
But I can never find the right words
Every time it comes around
I can be your blind man leading Touch the very heart of you
Everyone knows the feeling
You cannot shake it off, can you?
