

Everyone's Wrong

Ariel Pink

Times like these I get depressed and I feel so sad
I think that I'm fucking wrong
If I'm wrong it's for the best and I feel so sad
Cause everyone's fucking wrong
Everyone's fucking wrong

Drifting on the ocean
A toilet on the sea
That washed the whales on wet sand
Or was it meant to be
Now the spell is broken
The wizard is withered and old
And we're empty and we're hollow
Where we're going, God only knows

Times like these I get depressed and I feel so sad
I think that I'm fucking wrong
If I'm wrong it's for the best and I feel so sad
Cause everyone's fucking wrong
Everyone's fucking wrong
Everyone's fucking wrong, yeah
Everyone's fucking wrong

Over my head (It's gonna be alright)
Over my head
Over my head (It's gonna be alright)
Over my head

When, when the diamond, it shines
When the diamond shines
The key, if it's been written, it's been read
If it's been heard, it's been said

Now the spell is broken
The wizard is withered and old
And we're empty and we're hollow
Where we're going, God only knows

Everyone's fucking wrong
Everyone's fucking wrong, yeah
Everyone's fucking wrong
Everyone's fucking wrong, yeah
Everyone's fucking wrong

Over my head (It's gonna be alright)
Over my head (It's gonna be alright)
Over my head (It's gonna be alright)
Over my head (It's gonna be alright)

Everyone's fucking wrong
(It's gonna be alright)
Everyone's fucking wrong

Over my head
Over my head
Over my head
Over my head

Everyone's fucking wrong
