

Poultry Head

Ariel Pink

You broke the seal of bacon and slapped it on the pan
The coldest ham implored you, come kiss my purple mouth

Poultry head, the reason that he cannot deny

Like ketchup, the bread winner [?] and tangled to be fed
At last a skillet swordsman arrived to fry his head
"You're lost but no one needs you" - he screamed as fat ran down
His legs crossed the bad flames [?] and tripped him on a coal

Poultry head, the reason that he cannot deny
Poultry head, the reason that he cannot deny

Bad poultry, bad poultry, bad... he said
Bad poultry head, he said
