A RAPPER$ BREAKFAST

Aries

Yo it's Doomzilla
Wow baboon gorilla
Banging on my chest like fuck supreme
May the best lead
Look at the screen posted at the cineflex
Cruisin' through my late teens wondering whats next
And I could hear your section
Gather up the bestest
They still stand no chance against the young and restless
I ate a rappers breakfast
Bitch I could rap a set-list like one take Memorize a name how could you forget this
On the grind and its never been too much
Had to pay respect 'fore I put out the new stuff
Doom hit it
And long live steelo
They took the whole cake one piece left for me though
I said I'm south so they clip over each border
Stay on beat, they get tough when I breach order
Three left said I suck, never heard of this
Guess that means I need three heads like Cerberus
Put them on a pitchfork
Why you such a bitch for
Couldn't fall asleep if I tried I would just get bored
No medicine may the better man
Clocked in through the week
I am one step ahead of them (them)

Yeah sudden switch, dumb as it gets
Seen the dead come alive when I'm up in the mix
I see my friends stick around with the anonymous bitch
He knew it too well but rather rub on a tits
I told him shes in college probably cheating you
You better cut it fore the guild starts beating ya
Too indulged in her own social media
Wouldn't even share my shit well nice meeting ya
I hope to get it understand why I'm doing this Walk on water but don't hate me on that crucifix
Get offended 21 century the first amendment
And the flow relentless
Imma get them in awe
Shoot for the stars
Pissed off if nobody watched
Ring the alarm
I'm the cool killer
This is the Doomzilla
(I usually keep it quiet taking the slow lane)
