

AMY'S GRAVE

Aries

(Deep, oh
Come find, cut deep, oh
Why should I care
Gone, gone, gone)

Never knew calm, I can't help
180, I'll turn back soon
The Addy in the car, Addy in the car
Ain't shit change, if it did, I can't tell
Make me stay no more
It ends next to Amy's grave, with the prayer hands
And the shaky legs, still panicking
Won't you take me away, take me away
Now stay inside, in case it rains (yeah)
Tank full of sharks like the hoodie, bape (yeah)
Shifting shapes, ain't changing friends
But the circle tight, like a wedding band (uh)

No longer mind if I go
You pray enough, I might fall
Down, down, down, down
Why should I care what happens to me?
Why should I care what happens to me?
Follow my lead, in casket I'll sleep
With the bottle by feet, passing out cold (it up)
Count it up at times
Follow me and say

Addy in the car, Addy in the car
I don't wanna talk, I don't wanna talk
And she said
"I'm not falling, I'll land"
Keep me right at bay, I'm seasick
Quit reaching, come this far, and you'll drip
Quit reaching for those stars, I can't catch one
Reason, cut 'em off like your wrist
Stay inside, stay inside

Stay inside
Stay inside (rather stay)
Count it up at times

No longer mind if I go
You pray enough, I might fall
Down, down, down, down
Why should I care what happens to me?
Why should I care what happens to me?
Follow my lead, in casket I'll sleep
With the bottle by feet, passing out cold
Everything you ever wanted, I'll be
