

ANESTHESIA

Aries

Don't bow down
Lately, all this talk just to keep you from myself
Running like hell
Glimmering hope to a blind eye
Steep as you stride uphill

Now keep up, I'm barely awake
If this ain't anesthesia, I'm as numb as you think
I'm sinking in, deeper
Please don't pull me away, away

I've fallen, down the blue
Have I forgotten, who the fuck are you?
I can't get up out this place
Don't stand in my way
Coming up short on replies
'Less I heard what I like

Every time I keep up, I'm barely awake
If this ain't anesthesia, I'm as numb as you think
I'm sinking in, deeper, deeper, deeper (Away), deeper (Away)
Deeper, deeper, deeper (Away)

Yeah, come here, quick, pose for the picture
Stumblin', I kill this rose elixir
Twelve flights down, one step to get there
I pledge my vessel
It's ironic, I'm dragging my feet
'Cause the one thing you're asking of me is to

Keep up, I'm barely awake
If this ain't anesthesia, something's numbing the pain
My God, I'm deeper, deeper (deeper)
I'm deeper (I'm deeper)
I'm deeper (I'm deeper)
Oh, how could I ever keep up? (Keep up)
I'm barely awake (Oh)
If this ain't anesthesia, something's numbing the pain
My God, I'm deeper, deeper (deeper)
Deeper, deeper, deeper, deeper, deeper, deep

Fallin' back lately
And I ain't your number one no more
