

CONVERSATIONS

Aries

All our ties stay severed
That was when we were young
She's in love and he's a tough guy
That leads you on and what I can't explain is

Settle your vendetta
New stilettos pokin' on me like Berettas
I cannot see eye-to-eye, I'm off one
More than enough time to decide

Conversations, I could never get enough so
Pulled away every time I ever tumbled
Silence aching my bones with ya
Try me, sending good luck

Your loss to embrace, still I trust
Not forever open up, lotta bread, broken up
A piece of you (A piece)
Rough around the edges, pray you rest in heaven tonight
Wait 'til I fall for you to come back around
Take all you want, all we got what's left in town
And the rose gold crown, you protect the throne
Won't you say it now, I'll check the Rosetta Stone

Conversations, I could never get enough so
Pulled away every time I ever tumbled
Silence aching my bones with ya
Try me, sending good luck

Conversations, I could never get enough so
Pulled away every time I ever tumbled
Silence aching my bones with ya
Try me, sending good luck

When the fiends are up
How you keep 'em coming
Falling right by my hands
Watch you reach for nothing
Too shy, forever known
Ring my second phone
I can't answer, love I need
Every single chance
You are not on me
(No no no)

Conversations, I could never get enough so
Pulled away every time I ever tumbled
Silence aching my bones with ya
Try me, sending good luck

Conversations, I could never get enough so
Pulled away every time I ever tumbled
Silence aching my bones with ya (Aching my bones with ya)
Good luck
