

EASY

Aries

You're too weak
You're too easy on me
That's the farthest I'd ever got
Breaking up, take it in
Let's start all over again
Go pick whoever's side

As bad as it gets I hope
You find it alarming when I'm not home
Pictures, send me lots, save em all to my phone
Exes, exes, ohs, call that Tic-tac-toe

How'd you end up where you are?
Years later, chasing the stars
I wanna pick you apart
Swim in a tank with the sharks

Every question, I've pondered
Every answer; a goner
Why they ran out for good?
Why'd they vanish? I wonder

You're too weak
You're too easy on me
That's the farthest I'd ever got
Breaking up, take it in
Let's start all over again
Go pick whoever's side

You're too weak
You're too easy on me
That's the farthest I'd ever got
Breaking up, take it in

Yeah

No way, no problem
Affirmations I've forgotten, that's okay
Open sore, my prophecy
Pick your poison, I'll support it
Granny chose a pack a day

Questions loaded, brought my homies
Take one step back, who? Ginobli
Sold my soul, what keep me floating
This alright
This enough

You're too weak
You're too easy on me
That's the farthest I'd ever got
Breaking up, take it in
Let's start all over again
Go pick whoever's side

You're too weak

That's the farthest I'd ever got
Let's start all over again
