

Neanderthal

Aries

Woaaah man, alright!

Is this guy gonna do it?

Yo man you think he's gonna do it?

Yeah man, I think he's gonna do it!

Oh shit, here we go!

I got a full clip loaded I'm poppin' off here we go (Woah!)

Opposite of big so I stand on my tippy toes (Woah!)

Spit something, man that's gross

I joke, see me holding up, man that's dope

You see, I made it to the next stage

Aries say he's working hard but ain't shit changed (Ain't shit changed!)

My motors are just running, see I'm only older but I still grip
the mic the same way

Wanna be a star? Come and listen to Jafar

I leave you in the sand hoppin' on the magic carpet

Get in my way and become another target

Head is in the game now I'm bout' to throw an arm in (No way!)

What do these words even mean (Yo!)

I swear to God I wrote this in the wrong mind state

Primitive primate, neanderthal

Take the wins and then we add em' all

I'm the worst thing you've ever heard

Flippin' words, birds, and syllables killin' from a minimal

Outstand the rest, eat MC's like edibles

Word to Cole 'cause our men ain't never fold

I'm just taking baby steps until the record gets sold

Live and direct, my sixth sense is active and up in effect

Hunched in my chair hanging on to my desk

Lookin' out the pad while I'm busting my neck (C'mon, c'mon)

Yo, now what the fuck is that

Shootin' for the stars but these tracks turn wack

Bust it in inside now I can't turn back

This whole rap thing is the young man's crack, test me (Holy sh it)

Without a teste, I'm fucking nuts

Bustin' uppercuts ring a round a bitch is gonna suckerpunch

What a bunch of snot-nosed civilians

A word out there mouth is more trash than a billion
