Aries

Yo
Three, two, one, let's go
Ooh

(In one ear)
Out from the other
Say what you will, didn't matter last summer
Slice of a life that was built on the come-up
One thing led to another
On my mother
Four, five, six weeks deep in the tat
Presto, cat's out the bag, it's alive
Just you and I

But I feel like, I can't break through
Every dark night, I'm staring at you
For a glimpse or a sign that this flower blooms
Man, I feel like, ay-yeah

Every other moment wanting to lead
Now we're moving slow, pick your body up
Can't lift nobody up, nobody else
It's starting to weaken, I can't lie
Growing older as you move
(Move)

In one ear, out from the other
Question every word that I spoke, did I stutter?
I been holding up a heart, so heal up
You had a taste, now you tryna make a deal of it (So far)
You booked your flight, I hope it landed (So far)
Maybe I'll never understand it (So far)

I feel like, I can't break through
Every dark night, I'm staring at you
For a glimpse or a sign that this flower blooms
Man, I feel like, ay-yeah

Every other moment wanting to lead
Now we're moving slow, pick your body up
Can't lift nobody up, nobody else (Nobody else)
It's starting to weaken, I can't lie
Growing older as you move

No, I can't lie now
Glass jaw
(I heard you was yappin' your jaw)
