

THE MAN

Aries

Never enough, getting docile
Life for the moment I know
Or maybe I'm talking to ghosts
Maybe I'm talking to ghosts
Yeah

Attractin' familiar vibes
Doing this one at a time
I can feel it we so close
I've been gripping the nine
Throughout the coldest winters
Taking on adventures
Try to pay attention to the fast life
Wondering how long it lasts
Got through the darkest tunnels with no flashlight
I get it and now I'm the man

Trapped in the chambers, same night I make it
So run it shit, I might run this bitch
Skimmed through pages, [?] cadence
Throw it up like a million faces
And that's why I'm coming through raw
Impatiently waiting for something to take me
Above all the skies still I'm higher than all
Just a man that grew from this planet
Anxious habits, take advantage
Music pill when no pop of Xanax
Dropping hits like Muhammad dammit
I can't get enough but I learn to manage
Yeah, occasions like this you never know
Learn to love and now sometimes I keep my head under control
Taking my high to the lows, catching a vibe and my eyes never close
Mumbling like I've been sleep talking
Sleeping on me but I keep walking, I feed off it
Been a minute has it
Come quite far from the first underpass now better than your average
Great passion no stop clock, take action
No stop now might happen

It's one of the great wonders of life, you know that very well. Never learned to pursue the spirit?

Never enough, gettin' docile
Live for the moment I know
Seems like we're just getting closer
Well maybe I'm talking to ghosts

Attractin' familiar vibes
Doing this one at a time
I can feel it we so close
I've been gripping the nine
Throughout the coldest winters
Taking on adventures
Try to pay attention to the fast life
Wondering how long it lasts
Got through the darkest tunnels with no flashlight
I get it and now I'm the man

I live when I write
Sinking when I feel it move and I squeeze it in tight
Man, I could scream in the mic
Heart pumping got a feel when it's outta my sight
So conscious lost consciousness
Ain't no option we mobbing it
I'm the captain of this ship
Jolly Roger keep it lit
I've been around enough to know that this ain't crazy as it get
Not even close
Fuck what you expect still climbing from the lows
I said vamanos, I still gotta go
I'm still working on it
Make your speakers knock right from your head down to your-

Never enough, gettin' docile
Live for the moment I know
Seems like we're just getting closer
Well maybe I'm talking to ghosts

Attractin' familiar vibes
Doing this one at a time
I can feel it we so close
I've been gripping the nine
Throughout the coldest winters
