

WHEN THE LIGHTS GO OUT

Aries

When the lights go out

Hmm, yeah

Put my phone on fire, I'm oblivious
I can wear this smile with experience
Tell you everything you like; it'll be a while
Got your head on fire, nothing serious

She's a westside kitty, bump in this ride with me
FaceTime whenever I'm gone out the city
It's a birds eye sitting on my head like Jimmy
Gone in the tomb with you, how you not see me?

When I was young, I wanted to bag them all
Like 'em skinny or tall, a race to tape them off
Search like a hound, where you haven't seen me at?
Put my body in the ground, she's a necrophiliac

I think I've had butterflies for a while now
You say you want it

What a time
When the lights go out

When the lights go out

Raising my stakes, pain on my face
Walk it down slow, lean it sideways
Tens, twenties, in advances
I've been the man, homie, out of Kansas

But she's a westside kitty, bump in this ride with me
FaceTime whenever I'm gone out the city
It's a third eye sitting on my head like Tien
Lotta foes, lotta friends, blowing smoke like chimneys

Maybe I can teach you all the difference
Follow me, I'll take you any distance
This my family, my coalition
Who's gonna fuck with me no matter the conditions

Yeah,
When it's okay momma
Figured I'd stay longer
Wanna crawl back tomorrow

When the lights go out

When the lights go out

You always talking about the sun, what does the sun even mean to you?
You're inside all day. You don't even see it
