

Nothing's Forever

Arin Ray

Nothing's forever
Change gonna come
I've prepared myself in case you ever run
Told you my secrets, I can't erase your mind
Gave all of myself just to wait in line

But that's what they all say
They call me a madman
I'm feeling like Kanye, yeah (You)
You was a call away (Yeah)
Now you so far away
Both had to learn the hard way

Baby, you let me down, so sweet
No more regrets to take with me

Broke your heart down the middle
Tryna repair the cracks
All the wrongs that I done, I know I can't take it back
Said you made your decision, nothing's written in stone
Told you, "Baby, come home," you said just leave you alone

That's what they all say (Yeah)
It's making me sad, bae (Hey)
Your bags in the hallway, yeah
Are we throwing it all away? (All away)
Are we letting it fall in place?
Are we trying at all today? Yeah

Baby, you let me down so sweet (So sweet, so sweet)
No more regrets to take with me
(Ooh, yeah)

Let me down
So sweet
Let me down

Girl, look what we become
That's what they all say (Let me down)
It's making me sad, bae
Your bags in the hallway, yeah (So sweet)
Are we throwing it all away?
Are we letting it fall in place?
Are we trying at all today? Yeah

Baby, you let me down
No more regrets to take
(No more regrets
No more regrets, bae)

Hello, goodbye
For you, for now
For later, forever
I miss you
Never had nothing that much before
This was it
This is real

It's poison
It's truth
Thank you
