Arin Ray

Had a dream of you in a room full of mirrors
I was telling you how to move, but you couldn't hear it
'Cause you screamed so loud, almost woke me up, up out my sleep
But now you're looking and feeling so real to me

Oh shit, I might be psychic, I saw it just like this
I really think you're gonna like it
Yeah, you were looking just like this, oh shit, I might be psychic
I was just dreaming about you, I can't believe it came true

When I looked at you, the world changed
The sheets or the curtains, and now the beds are staged
They sold out, we're adding dates
I could see a future, you end up with my last name
That look on your face's got a nigga thinkin'

Oh shit, I might be psychic, I saw it just like this
I really think you're gonna like it
Yeah, you were looking just like this, oh shit, I might be psychic
I was just dreaming about you, I can't believe it came true

Had a dream of you in a room full of mirrors
I was telling you how to move, but you couldn't hear it
'Cause you screamed so loud, almost woke me up, up out my sleep

But now you're looking and feeling so real to me
Almost woke me up, up out of, almost woke me up, up out of Almost woke me up, up out of my sleep

Oh shit, I might be psychic, I saw it just like this
I really think you're gonna like it
