

Turn This Into Something

Arin Ray

Oh
Take it down
I get it down
She a bad one (yeah)
I got a bad one
She never average

I been here once before (yeah)
That was a dream to remember (yeah)
You went right through that door
And I could tell you needed better

So baby what's the problem
Stop it with the nonsense
I know you've been hurt
But cryin' ain't no option
Let's go out this weekend
Somewhere we can die
Going' through a breakup
Ain't that perfect time?
Turn this into something (Yeah)
Something out of nothing babe
I promise I ain't bluffin
I really need your lovin' babe
Let's turn this into something
Turn this into something
Turn this into something

I get it down
She a bad one
I got a bad one
She never average
She never average
She never average
She never average

No one even sweat that fuck shit
He irrelevant
And he don't mean nothing
Every single day is a Saturday
We gon' blow a check like we don't need nothing
Chilling by the pier
Smoke is in the air
Know we on the western side
Everybody stare
Look at them there
Know we setting shit on fire

So baby what's the problem
Stop it with the nonsense
Somewhere we can die
Ain't that perfect time?

Something out of nothing babe
I promise I ain't bluffin

I get it down
She a bad one
She never average
Yeah we got a bad one
She never average
