

Black Swan

Arion

Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all

You are flying high in the clouds
In your fantasies breathing fire
You are soaring over the peaks
In your ecstasy you feel the power

You're a messiah in your own mind
You're a pariah, the last of your kind

The deceiving wings of divine
Are burning away in your eyes
The dying breath of all lies
The ghosts from your past come alive
The deceiving wings of divine
Are burning away in your eyes
The firestorm in your mind
Your river of dreams hiding a black swan

You are diving into the sea
The allure of illusions reels you in
You are sinking into the deep
The show is a tragedy and you're a failure

Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Now that you've learned you're not unbreakable
Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all

The deceiving wings of divine
Are burning away in your eyes
The dying breath of all lies
The ghosts from your past come alive
The deceiving wings of divine
Are burning away in your eyes
The firestorm in your mind
Your river of dreams hiding a black swan

Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all
Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all
Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all
Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all

The deceiving wings of divine
Are burning away in your eyes
The dying breath of all lies
The ghosts from your past come alive
The deceiving wings of divine
Are burning away in your eyes
The firestorm in your mind
Your river of dreams hiding a black swan

Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Now that you've learned you're not unbreakable
Pray for a savior, pray for your soul
Deep down you're afraid you're nothing at all
