

Break My Chains

Arion

Walking through the fire
I knew I was weak, I suffered
Wading through the mire
My life felt so bleak and draining

Every word, every shot aimed to stain me
I died every day, I withered away
No escape, felt like no one could save me
But I will not fall, I will burn it all

Inside of my prison walls
I've wept and I've crawled
I will burn it all
And I won't die here

I won't be falling
I won't be crying over you
I'll carry on, I'll grow stronger
I won't be crawling
I won't be dying over you
I'll overcome all my fears
I'll break my chains
And I won't die here

Faded, but undying
Years flew and my heart grew harder
More than just surviving
I'm vibrant, I'm strong, I'm breathing

Every tear, every wound meant to shape me
I'm not here to fall, I'm not here to fade
No retreat, there's no force that could break me
No surrender and I won't die here

I won't be falling
I won't be crying over you
I'll carry on, I'll grow stronger
I won't be crawling
I won't be dying over you
I'll overcome all my fears
I'll break my chains
And I won't die here

And I won't die here

I won't be falling
I won't be crying over you
I'll carry on, I'll grow stronger
I won't be crawling
I won't be dying over you
I'll overcome all my fears
I'll break my chains
And I won't die here

I won't be falling

I won't be dying over you

I'll overcome all my fears
I'll break my chains
