

Through Your Falling Tears

Arion

So hard I tried
Though I knew I stood on already on thin ice
And now it's time
I swear I promised I'll be telling no more lies
Cause when you're staring in my hollow lifeless eyes
I know they're telling you I'm running out of time

No time to waste
Cause I will be going
Down the river with my twilight years
While its roaring
You'll find the way
I've always known it
Through the river with your falling tears till the ocean

Tomorrow shines the dark will fade out in its place
The dawn will rise

The skies alight
On the lantern's shining through the dark of light
And while I know that I can't fight the rising tide
I promise ill be always by your side

No time to waste
Cause I'll be going
Down the river of my twilight years
While its roaring
You'll find the way
I've always known it
Through the river of your falling tears till the ocean

No time to waste
Cause I'll be going
Down the river of my twilight years
While its roaring
You'll find the way
I've always known it
Through the river of your falling tears till the ocean
