

Nostalgic

ARIZONA

OK fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call but I'm breaking my promise
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it

Now I felt weak tonight
Cause I caught myself not being caught-up with the times
Strangely you and I crossed the finish line
But big hearts move slow, get left behind

Lying next to someone else, oh
But sometimes I still remember what you said and how we felt

OK fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call but I'm breaking my promise
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it

Oh I can't stop it
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh I can't stop it
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh

It's all locked up inside
This giant hole, this stupid quicksand life of mine
And I guess I can't let go, even though I've tried
But it'll stay here with me till the day I die

Lying next to someone else, oh
But I'll always remember what you said said and how we felt

OK fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call but I'm breaking my promise
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it

Oh I can't stop it
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh I can't stop it
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
I can't stop it, whoa

OK fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call but I'm breaking my promise
Cause the memories are flooding my mind, baby I can't stop it
Oh I can't stop it
Oh I can't
