

Where You Are

ARIZONA

If walls could talk
Then this whole house could tell you a thousand stories
Of all those nights
That I was ready to get up and leave it all behind for you

Oh, it's not fair
That all the stars and the moon and the trees can see you dance
, and I can't
Oh, it's not fair
That the insides of your pockets can feel your hands, and I can
't, oh

I just wanna be where you are
'Cause it hurts like hell, right here, right now
Oh, I just wanna be where you are, oh
Anywhere else but here, right now
Oh, I just wanna be where you are, oh-oh

If dreams could be
We would never have to spend another day away from each other
Just to feel you breathe, oh-oh
Oh baby, you know that I would fly to see so you and me didn't have to be so far away

It's not fair
That all the stars and the moon and the trees can see you dance
, I still can't
Oh-oh, it's not fair, oh-oh
That the insides of your pockets can feel your hands, and I sti ll can't

I just wanna be where you are
I just wanna be where you are, oh
Anywhere else, oh, but here, right now

Whoa, I just wanna be, wanna be (Where you are)
Oh, where you are
Whoa, I just wanna be, oh
(Where you are)
Wanna be (Anywhere else)
Oh-oh
Oh, I just wanna be
Where you are
