

When I'm A Hundred Sixty-Four

Arjen Anthony Lucassen

"Modern Science has extended human life. But is longevity what you really want?

Be careful what you wish for...come on...face the music!"

Will I still be active, passionate and full of life?

Or will I feel redundant, yearning for the day I'll die...

Will I still be relevant, or will I be ignored?

Never thought I'd wonder what the future has in store

When I'm a hundred sixty-four

Will I turn grey, or sport a toupee?

Or even care anymore...when I'm a hundred sixty-four

I hope I'll still be noticed

Turning heads like before

Will I be cool or nerdy

Up-to-date or dinosaur

When I'm a hundred sixty-four

Will I be lazy; stuck in my chair

It all seems so crazy. Guess I won't care

Anymore...at a hundred sixty-four

I might just be bored...at a hundred sixty-four
