

DESTINY

Arjun Kanungo

Destiny, you fucked me over!
Yeah, you got it wrong this time
She wasn't meant to leave me
You were supposed to make her mine!
Oh, Destiny why don't you listen?
I have some things to tell you to
If you make her love me
I swear I'll always cheer for you!
I know that you can be shy
And you'll never show your face!
But maybe give me a sign
II you're a person or you are a place?

I'm the one that's got it wrong
The answers been right there!
A person or a place it's both!
She's my everything and everywhere!

She knows the way! Close your eyes, it's okay!
She knows the way! Hold her hand, make her stay!

Her laughter is like poison! The kind that you don't mind
The birthmark on her waist dances like the softness in her eyes

Oh! Destiny why did you hide that we know each other well?
It is no coincidence her name is Destiny as well!

She knows the way! Close your eyes, it's okay!
She knows the way! Hold her hand, make her stay
She knows the way! Close your eyes, it's okay!
She knows the way! Hold her hand, make her stay

I don't know what the future's like
But I know that it is hard!
Yeah, life is changing all the time
But some things are for sure!
