Remember Tonight

Arjun

Remember there's one thing
One thing,
One thing,
You should know (you should know)

If you got something to say,
Then say it to me,
Stop walking away,
Stop screaming at me,
There's nothing can change your mind..
But give me one last try,
And you look like you know
That it's over but I don't
Before we go
I stepped away
I just need to ask one thing..

Remember tonight
Can you promise me that you'll always
Remember to-na-a-a-ight,
When you see that morning light,
Remember there's one thing,
One thing,
One thing,
You should know (you should know)
Cus baby there's something,
Something,
Something,
That will last forever (forever)..

I look at your face
Lit up in candle light,
Don't wanna forget the way
You look tonight.
Stop falling apart around us tonight,
Just wanna make this moment
Last for all time..
And you look like you know,
That it's over but I don't
Before we go,
I stepped away,
I just need to ask one thing..

Remember tonight
Can you promise me that you'll always
Remember to-na-a-a-ight,
When you see that morning light,
Remember there's one thing,
One thing,
One thing,
You should know (you should know)
Cus baby there's something,
Something,
Something,
That will last forever (forever)..

Is this the end baby?

Do you got something to say,
Cos you know how I feel,
Can we have our last night,
Till we remember all time,
Together
(together, together, together)

Remember tonight
Can you promise me that you'll always
Remember to-na-a-a-ight,
When you see that morning light,
Remember there's one thing,
One thing,
One thing,
You should know (you should know)
Cus baby there's something,
Something,
Something,
That will last forever (forever)..

Remember tonight...
