Come sit with me on the roof of my car
And let's just chill here, lying under the stars baby
When you wake up in the morning
And the sunlight dries your tears
Just pretend that we've left the world behind

I'm gonna find a way to make it work for the both of us
Different paths and I don't know if they're gonna cross
I just know that you gotta have faith and stick with me girl
I'm workin 9 to 5 but everyday I'm fightin for it
You don't feel the same way but I know you know it
Let's pretend that we're, let's pretend that we're somewhere else

Cos I'm a Stargazer - gonna forget about the rest of my day
Cos I'm a Stargazer - and I'm gonna pretend everything is ok
This feeling, I've got to be dreaming
Up on that stage, with the spotlight shining on me

The lights go down and the crowd goes quiet
Plug in my guitar and I take in the silence slowly
But are you gonna be there to help me through it
Are you gonna be there?

Just give me a pen and a pad and I'll show you what I'm feelin
All I need is a guitar and my baby
I don't care that the world keeps letting me down, down, down
I'm a go-getter so I'mma go get it
Gotta keep on movin, wanna better the best there is
Take the jump but I don't know what the future will bring

Cos I'm a Stargazer - gonna forget about the rest of my day
Cos I'm a Stargazer - and I'm gonna pretend everything is ok
One day you know I'm gonna be there
Up on that stage, with the spotlight shining on me

You make me wanna be a better man
But will you stick around while the dream is still a plan?
And I don't wanna fight with you, speaking to your hand
I wanna spend my life with you, we could be a brand like...
Russell and Katy, but it's difficult because you ain't been

Trusting me lately, and I'm stuck in the basement
Haven't shaved for a week, and I ain't got the finer things yet
I'm still tryna make ends meet
But if you're here with me, I know I'll be ok
Tomorrow isn't promised so I'm treasuring today
See my name up in lights in the future,
Awards shows - thanking my parents for raising me right
And I could act a fool and not be such a nice guy
I tried and I failed, all they said was nice try
My destiny will reach me, that is my divine right
I'm just visualizing everything under the night sky

Cos I'm a Stargazer - gonna forget about the rest of my day
Cos I'm a Stargazer - and I'm gonna pretend everything is ok
This feeling, I've got to be dreaming
Up on that stage, with the spotlight shining on me
