

Escape

Ark Patrol

Everywhere you go the memories follow you
And everything you left behind takes shape
And only if you tell me what you're dreaming of
I can be your endless and escape

Look at that burn
Never return
Keep it away
Don't let it happen again
Don't let it happen again
Fall into frame
Another name
Give it a rest
And push the memory away
And push the memory away

Everywhere you go

Look at that burn
Never return
Keep it away
Don't let it happen again
Don't let it happen again
Fall into frame
Another name
Give it a rest
And push the memory away
And push the memory away
