

King

Ark Patrol

Is what it is inside the king's court actin' like a fool to get the upper hand

Was everything from an advisor to a wizard and I even joined the royal band

I got the poison in my right boot pocket waiting for an opportunity

One day I found his royal highness sigh in silence and he turned around and looked at me

"So now you..."

"I see everything, I see- I see everything..."

"...see?"

"We don't need luck, we don't need luck, luck's..."

"So now you..."

Try not to panic automatically, I juggle for the king as I had done before

He interrupted, said "I know your game, I've been observing you since days of yore"

"So now you..."

"You'll see everything, I see- I see everything..."

"So happy to..."

"We don't need luck, we don't need luck, luck's..."

"How did he know..."

I held my smile and grabbed the vial, but he grabbed my arm, suddenly time stood still

Out in the chaos, found a way outside his grip and pulled the vial out so I could kill

The king collapsed and with his last breath said "I bear you no ill will"

"You'll see everything, I see- I see everything..."

We don't need luck, we don't need luck, luck's..."

"You'll see everything, I see- I see everything..."

We don't need luck, we don't need luck, luck's..."

"How did he know..."
