

13th Hour

Arkangel

Tempted to be god
Reigning on the 13th hour

Hearts are trembling in these times of suffering not all of us are strong most are weak

Falling pig after pig,
cow after cow,
army after army
learning values of life only through fear

With my enemies by my side our end is near

Stronger than our hate for each other something keeps us bound one to another

The walls of the room are getting closer and closer what's worse than slow death

Ending in this evil place will our soul make it further sure not to heaven

Beasts running through ruins and flames will make it on time
you won't have to wait
no time to escape
it's too late
this sound you hear
means the end is near

Pig after pig
cow after cow
army after army
bleed....
