

Beginner's Mind

Arkells

I wasn't at my best
At the time I didn't know it
You wanted honesty but how could I show it?

It's easy getting off
Pretend it didn't happen
The daylight innocent
The nighttime owes you something

Beginner's mind
Beginner's eyes
Can we rewind?
Before we knew too much?

Beginner's mind
Beginner's eyes
No, I'm never gonna stop, never gonna stop

I wanna see you walking to me
Know the way you move from
Blocks away

There's only one you
There's only one me
What can I say?

There's no going back
There's no going back to
Yesterday

A random Friday night
A random conversation
I'm swallowed up in a random sea of faces

Then I think of you
I know you're not caving
I had you in my arms
You were mine for the taking

Beginner's mind
Beginner's eyes
Can we rewind?
Before we knew too much?

Beginner's mind
Beginner's eyes
No, I'm never gonna stop
Never gonna stop

I wanna see you walking to me
Know the way you move from
Blocks away

There's only one you
There's only one me
What can I say?

There's no going back
There's no going back to
Yesterday

There's no going back
There's no going back to
Yesterday

Beginner's mind
Beginner's eyes
Can we rewind?
Before we knew too much?

Beginner's mind
Beginner's eyes
No, I'm never gonna stop
Never gonna stop

I wanna see you walking to me
Know the way you move from
Blocks away

There's only one you
There's only one me
What can I say?

There's no going back
There's no going back to
Yesterday

There's no going back
There's no going back to
Yesterday
