

I'm Not The Sun

Arkells

Slipped through the front door
Without a key
It's always unlocked
When you're waiting for me
And I have to wait till your roommates were sleeping
They give you a hard time that I was over

Yours eyes light up always the same
Just like I was taking you on a first date
If you have no reason for feeling this way
So don't let me be your guiding light

Cuz that was never my power
I'm not the sun
There's no guarantee
I burn out hard like a spark

So don't let me be your guiding light
Cuz I'll keep you lost in the dark
Cuz I'm not the sun
There's no guarantee
Cuz I burn out hard like a spark
Yeah, I burn out hard like a spark
