

Miracle

Arkells

I deserve to be back in the gutter now
Been saying one thing and doing another now
Pull back the curtains it's a helluva scene man
Turn on the house lights and you'll see what I mean

Was I stealing?
The years you were believing
This unspoken agreement
I'd make good on this in time

I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
To get outta my mind

Can you describe all the colours you're seeing now?
Bright red, baby blue, find the meaning now

Sending in my taxes, what's the status of the partnership
Starring in the show
Are you for real?
Or are you full of shit?

Are ya bleeding?
Scarred or is it healing?
Which way are you leaning?
I've been sideways since the fall

I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
To get outta my mind

Was I stealing?
The years you were believing
This unspoken agreement
I'd make good on this in time

I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
To get outta my mind

Yeah I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
To get outta my mind

Yeah I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
I need a miracle
