

Time

Arkells

It's the day after
I tried to forget you
You told me, "Darlin'
It's time to move on"

They were all friendly
Everyone's filling their cup
The night started glowing
Finally loosening up

And I'm trying to find the meaning
No, I didn't wanna choose
I want you in the evening
I wanna wake up next to you

Now there's nothing to be done, no
I'm only staring at the clock
I've gotta let time do its thing now
'Cause time's the only option I got

A year full of Sundays
A year full of leveling out
I can't get too high now
It's a longer way down, down, down

Well, I'm trying to find the meaning
No, I didn't wanna choose
I want you in the evening
I wanna wake up next to you

Now there's nothing to be done, no
I'm only staring at the clock
I've gotta let time do its thing now
'Cause time's the only option I
Time's the only option I
Time's the only option I got
