Arlie

No no no no no
You mean prove them wrong
Gonna prove em wrong

How do you define delusional?
Do you believe in anything?
(Yeah)
Why?
(Well, because)
Because the outsides match the insides
You say it happens all the time
But I've never seen the outside
All I see is in my mind
My whole life happens in my mind
(It's ok)
And I don't need your forgiveness
What I need is a better system
Faith is dead if it doesn't work
If it doesn't help more than it hurts
And doing the right thing
Is the most selfish thing you can do
Because it can't help me to harm you
But you know what I do
Is never what I want to

I had it
But then I lost it again
I had it
I'm gonna find it again
I had it
But then I lost it again
I'm gonna find it again
Gonna prove them wrong
Gonna prove them wrong
Wrong

How can you be sure you're not the bad guy?
(You can't just ask someone that!)
No I'm asking for a friend
Don't you think the means have to justify the ends?
And what if it never ends?
And what if we were more than friends?
If we were long lost brothers
That's why we're so hung up on each other
And that's why you're just like my dad
And I'm just like your mother
Oh you're such an empath?
Well I'm such an empath
Oh you took a he-him path?
Well I took a they-them path
And now we've come to an impasse
We really could make an impact
If only you didn't have to be such a windbag
Well at least your pride is obvious
I know mine likes to hide
And yours likes to push
What if I just wanna hug you?

But you know what I do
Is never what I want to

I had it
But then I lost it again
I had it
I'm gonna find it again
I had it
But then I lost it again
I'm gonna find it again
Gonna prove them wrong
Gonna prove them wrong
Wrong
