

Pieces

Arlissa

Even though my hearts broke, I'll love you with all the pieces
I'll be there with the air you breathe in
Lay your head on my pillow, tell me all your secrets
I'll promise you that I'll keep em

Tell me
Tell me
Who hasn't been hurt, baby
Still we
Can't help putting them first

Knowing it ain't working
Making you feel worthless, babe
It ain't picture perfect
Underneath surface, babe

You're dying for something you need more
Come over, ooh
I know I've been hurt before

Even though my hearts broke, I'll love you with all the pieces
I'll be there with the air you breathe in
Lay your head on my pillow, tell me all your secrets
I'll promise you that I'll keep em

Okay
I lay my head on yo pillow
Tell you all of my secrets
Just know I'm far
From an angel
If I show you my demons
I'm trynna see a new angle
You give me all of the reasons
You give me so many that I could write a book or a thesis
And I'm rambling on
I might as well just perform
I turn this bed to a stage
I turn this love to a song
I turn this kiss to them drums
And got you humming along
Like mmm...
All the way to the morning

You're dying for something you need more
Come over, ooh
I know I've been hurt before

Even though my hearts broke, I'll love you with all the pieces
I'll be there with the air you breathe in
Lay your head on my pillow, tell me all your secrets
I'll promise you that I'll keep em

Even though my hearts broke, I'll love you with all the pieces
I'll be there with the air you breathe in
Lay your head on my pillow, tell me all your secrets
I'll promise you that I'll keep em
