

Take

Arlissa

You mean what you don't say
Can't leave but you won't stay
Self obsessed you've fallen for your ego
And you found out the hard way

And you take take take take take take take take take take take
Just when I say I need you is the moment that you walk away
It's a bitter pill to swallow
Gave it all but you're still hollow
Gave it all but you're still hollow
Gave it all but you're still...

It still drives me crazy
Love me like you hate me
I know you won't say
I've been on your mind of lately
You still check up on me
Lonely and you blame me
Every time you take
Take take take take take take

Take take take take
Oh ya take take take take take take
Oh ya take take take take take take
Oh ya take take take take take take

Oh no
I think I'm better on my own own (better alone)
Ain't that the way it always go go
Don't know what you got until it's gone gone
I cannot be in your misery all the time
I cannot give you piece of mind

Every time you take take take take take take take take take take take t ake
Just when I say I need you is the moment that you walk away
It's a bitter pill to swallow
Gave it all but you're still hollow
Gave it all but you're still hollow
Gave it all but you're still...

It still drives me crazy
Love me like you hate me
I know you won't say
I've been on your mind of lately
You still check up on me
Lonely and you blame me
Every time you take
Take take take take take take

Take take (take it) take take (take it from me)
Oh ya take take take take (take it from me)
Oh ya take take (take it) take take (take it from me)
Oh ya take take take take (take it)
