

Devotion

Arlo Parks

Got me falling on my sword, but I don't resent you
Shaking to Deftones, glitter in my bones
Love you like I don't know better

Girl, I wanna protect you, I do, oh
Your touch embroiders me
I'm wide open, hmm

All yours, baby
Come down like a million tonnes
All yours, baby
Flood me with your nervous love
All yours, baby
Come down like a million tonnes
All yours, baby

Now I got my show clothes on, the clutch is sticking
Challenger dark blue, why do I trust you
When you tell me I'm a good thing?

Girl, I wanna protect you, I do, oh
Your eyes destroying me
I'm wide open, hmm

All yours, baby
Come down like a million tonnes
All yours, baby
Flood me with your nervous love
All yours, baby
Come down like a million tonnes
All yours, baby
Flood me with your nervous love

All yours, baby
Come down like a million tonnes
All yours, baby
Flood me with your nervous love
All yours, baby
Come down like a million tonnes
All yours, baby
Flood me with your nervous love

I think in a way, I've always loved you
I used to hate it when people said that shit
But I mean it
You make me feel free
Ripping it out of me like Kim Deal
