

Right Back

Ar'mon & Trey

I done seen it all, I seen the signs
Lately you been acting outta line with me
Who knew you was plotting on the side (on the side)
I knew you would, knew you would

How you fuck up with a nigga like me
But truely lucked up with a nigga like me
Tone it down, I said you gotta tone it down
Held you up, shit, I used to hold it down, forreal
Now how you feel my oh my new bitch look like a steal
You know I 'cause to give you all the trust, yo bullshit was so obvio us (hey...)

Don't go
Walking round like you don't know
What goes around gotta come right back
What goes around gotta come right back (it's gone wrap around) don't go
Walking round like you don't know
What goes around gotta come right back
What goes around gotta come right back (it's gone wrap around)

No more falling in love again
Shit ain't making no sense
I'm tying all my loose ends
You just don't understand
You fuck up with your man
Now you ain't part of the plan
Fell short, need a hand
I just don't understand

How you fuck up with a nigga like me
But truely lucked up with a nigga like me
Tone it down, I said you gotta tone it down
Held you up, shit, I used to hold it down, forreal
Now how you feel my oh my new bitch look like a steal
You know I, I used give you all the trust, yo bullshit was so obvious

Don't go
Walking round like you don't know
What goes around gotta come right back
What goes around gotta come right back (it's gon' wrap around) don't go
Walking round like you don't know
What goes around gotta come right back
What goes around gotta come right back

(Gon' wrap around)
(Gon' wrap around)
(Gon' wrap around)

It gotta come right back...
