

Rather Drown

Armor for Sleep

The beach is on fire
I feel the flames lick my back
The sea invites me in
The trees are on fire
I see the smoke streaming towards the sky
Time for me to say goodbye

I'm gonna swim so far away
Past the point of no return
Rather drown than watch it all burn
I'm gonna swim so far away
Killing me to watch you turn
Rather drown than watch it all burn down

I'm so far away
I feel the salt fill my lungs
The sea takes me in
Then I turn around
I see the flames steal the tears from your eyes
Time for me to say goodbye

I'm gonna swim so far away
Past the point of no return
Rather drown than watch it all burn
I'm gonna swim so far away
Killing me to watch you turn
Rather drown than watch it all burn down
Rather drown than watch it all burn down
Rather drown than watch it all burn down

I'm gonna swim so far away
I'm gonna swim so far away

I'm gonna swim so far away
Past the point of no return
Rather drown than watch it all burn
I'm gonna swim so far away
Killing me to watch you turn
Rather drown than watch it all burn down
Rather drown than watch it all burn down
Rather drown than watch it all burn down

Rather drown than watch it all burn down
