

Get Lost

Armored Saint

I really hate people do smokin' funny games
Time, it can be impeccably late
So if I'm ready to do the deed, I go for it
But there's a knock beyond the door
A man with a suit tryin' to sell me shit

Don't mean to be so bland, b-b-but please get lost
Hey, don't take this wrong, but can ya please get lost
Get lost

Gettin' down deep and nasty, we're ready tonight
I don't seem to recall her name, though she looks all right
Up in sight, so moody as clean, a medicine hand
Surprise! The house is elected. Twenty friends with their cake in their heads

Don't mean to be so bland, would ya please get lost
Hey, don't take this wrong, but can ya please get lost
Get lost
Get off!

Ya can't be more clear!

Get lost! Can you see what's happenin' here?
Get lost! I wanna kick you to high gear!

Don't mean to be so bland, but would ya please get lost
Hey, don't take this wrong, but you can please get lost
Get lost

So you've had this situation before: You think you're alone
But someone keeps ringing your bell, you get calls on the phone
Are you really needing 20 minutes to tackle the deed?
Remember these simple words, so only true to solve this need

Don't mean to be so bland, but would ya please get lost
Hey, don't take this wrong, but would ya please get lost
Don't mean to be so bland, but would ya please get lost
Hey, don't take this wrong, but would ya please get lost
Get lost
Piss off
Get lost!

Get your goddamn feet off my fuckin' couch!
