

Nothing Between the Ears

Armored Saint

Where were you when god passed out the brains?
Must of stayed home, absent that day
I've seen many come and go, I wish you would!
Good for one thing only, stamina or what?
What did you say?
I say I'm sick an tired of moron-nazist ways
Don't know how much I wanna punch your painted face

Madness, madness, torn away
Madness, madness, to lock you away

Oh, help me
Nothing between the ears
Somebody wake me
Nothing between the ears
I gotta stay here
Nothing between the ears
Been passed another beer
Nothing between the ears
Nothing between your ears
Adds up space

Well I tried but nothing ever succeeds
Can't understand, no, I'm talking into stampede
What did you say?
I said I'm sick an tired of wasting casual time
Come here in a couple of years and you get half of mine

Madness, madness, torn away
Madness, madness, to lock you away

Oh, help me
Nothing between the ears
Somebody wake me
Nothing between the ears
I gotta stay here
Nothing between the ears
Been passed another beer
Nothing between the ears
Nothing between your ears
Adds up space

I give out a threat 'cause it makes me have more fun
You didn't even notice, you would have been done

Madness, madness, torn away
Madness, madness, to lock you away

Oh, help me
Nothing between the ears
Somebody wake me
Nothing between the ears
I gotta stay here
Been passed another beer

Oh, nothing between the ears
Oho, nothing between the ears
Oh, nothing between the ears
Adds up space
