

Adeline

Army of Freshmen

The days go in, the months go out
It's been a couple years still it's hard to think about
Back in high school when no one's cool
I used to sit in class think about how I was gonna

Rule the world and get that girl
Her name was Addy, she sat in front of me

Adeline, you're on my mind
So why'd you ever go and sign my yearbook
Cause when I look, it's all I see
Sometimes I wonder well if Addy ever thinks of me at all

She had long red hair and she didn't care
That her brother was a jock on the wrestling team
She look good in jeans, YEAH, YEAH
To her I was some dude but to me she was my everything

She ruled the world, that red head girl
Her name was Addy I wonder who's behind her now

Adeline, you're on my mind
So why'd you ever go and sign my yearbook
Cause when I look, it's all I see
Sometimes I wonder well if Addy ever thinks of me at all

[musical bridge]

She ruled the world, that red head girl
Ah, ah, ah, ah

So why'd you ever go and sign my yearbook
YEAH, YEAH
Sometimes I wonder well if Addy ever thinks of me at all

Adeline, the days go in and the years go out
YEAH, YEAH
Adeline, the days go in and the years go out
Ah, ah, ah, ah

The days go in, the months go out
It's been a couple years, still it's hard to think about
Back in high school, I wasn't cool
I used to sit in class
