

The Hello Goodbye Boys

Arno Carstens

We're the hello goodbye boys
We are God-sent, we're the choice
We are dancing on the stitches
Of old forgotten witches

Pay attention, pay attention now
Lord I'm coming home with you
Pay attention, pay attention now
Lord I'm coming, gone

We're in the ambulance of innocence
We're in the ambulance of innocence

We've come to help you
From this hell you're in
In this hospital
Where all began

Pay attention, pay attention now
Lord I'm coming home with you
Pay attention, pay attention now
Lord I'm coming, gone

We're in the ambulance of innocence
We're in the ambulance of innocence

We're the hello goodbye boys
We are God-sent, we're the choice
We are dancing on the stitches
So pay attention, pay attention now
