

A Silent Masquerade

Arrayan Path

You will never find the answer here
The answer lies beyond your horizons
I don't know why you left, you left me here
But I knew you would return

A silent, a silent masquerade
Where everyone's afraid
Hides away
I want to release you from truth
And I will forever be born into your ashes
The soldiers are sounding the trumpets, take your chances

Welcome to the masquerade ball
Where everyone's afraid to show
To show their real face, ashamed and broken
But intimate desires are born

A silent, a silent masquerade
Where everyone's afraid
Hides away
I want to you release you from truth
Jesters and royalties of medieval ages
They share one secret, one truth, their poisonous sages

Hides away
I want to release you from truth
And I will forever be born into your ashes
The soldiers are sounding the trumpets, take your chances
