

Angel With no Destination

Arrayan Path

Oh your over-clouded mind
Ambition buried you
Despite the dangers lurking and
Your father begging you
Now an endless threnody
You overcome your fears

Burn now burn to the unknown
Your ashes rained in tears

Fighting in vain
On your way to the sun
Diving into your damnation
Infinity won, you're the fallen one
An angel with no destination

Behold the sky-blue crystal sea
They named it after you
And as you fall
Into the void
Your father warning you
His words like twisted razors in
The corners of your mind
The ground is where
We're meant to be
Not angels in the sky

Solo: Alexis

Fighting in vain
Oh your way to the sun
Diving into your damnation
Infinity won, you're the fallen one
An angel with no destination
