

In Salamis

Arrayan Path

The Salaminians have become way too strong
He joined the kingdoms
Sometimes in fear, sometimes by the sword
Three stood before him
Siding with the enemy

In Salamis, In Salamis

I believe that the sun in the sky will be beautiful as ever
I believe on the day that I die it will shine forever
Take your freedom forever it's yours
It's now or never
Reborn again
For an island that no longer feeds satraps and usurpers
Travelling to the north in Tyre our destiny for us
Echoes of all the distant wars are feeding our voices
But it's the end

In Salamis

For a land that has known more pain than all in the universe
Condemned to live with the chains of Persian order
Say my name, dominate the land, the noble Evagoras
Reborn again
For an island that no longer feeds satraps and usurpers
Travelling to the north in Tyre our destiny for us
Echoes of all the distant wars are feeding our voices
But it's the end
