

Metamorphosis

Arrayan Path

The future is now a barren Earth
It has begun... Unholy birth
It's been foretold, a prophecy
A suicide atrocity
And now the world is broken in two
False saviors reaching out to you
A massacre, a sorry sight
Elimination of humankind
And every living creature on Earth
You taste the blood and face your death
Overpopulation of Necropolis

Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes

From my eyes oceans of regret
I should have fought until I bled
I should have fought 'til my last breath
For Earth to breathe again
A pale blue dot of egoistic clowns
Hiding our loneliness with frown
A world reformed, a nation of negation

Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
We'll build a new Metropolis
Reduce to save our resources
I want to love you
To kill your fear and hold you
We drift into dimensional hate

Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
Lend all your ears and eyes
Metamorphosis
We'll build a new Metropolis
Reduce to save our resources
I want to love you
To kill your fear and hold you
Silent tears are falling

Oh I implore you
There was a world before you
We need an Earth without the people now!
