

The Usurper

Arrayan Path

And I will be here for a thousand years
For freedom for my kingdom, time it draws anear
And for my sorrows and all the tears
For the reigning passion through those years
For the reigning passion

Desecrator of the bloodline
Double-crossing the royal Teucrids
I'll end you, terminate you
Inside the royal city walls

Now under the bleeding sun
A dawning new age has began
I know I'm your destiny child
Everyone stand by my side

Now under the bleeding sun
A dawning new age has began
I know I'm the destiny child
I will never forget my dream til I die

And I will be here for a thousand years
For charming Salamis I'll make them disappear
Oh gather warriors with swords and spears
For a reigning passion through those years

This I promise, I will set you free

Oh we shall never stop trying
For our world, we shall never kneel down
For a king who has fearlessly died here
But his dream it was never fulfilled

I won't deny it
Dark tears oh they burn inside
Only the lying
Dark tears oh they burn inside
For freedom dying
Kingdoms united
