ArrDee

I got more than enough in my locker
Me I'm warrior
I feel like Rocky the moment he got up
This some champion shit
I just keep on landing
I know it ain't just bout all the bangs you hit
But I'm still here standing
Taking on the whole scene while I'm off my rocker but

I got more than enough in my locker
Kick me on the ground and I'll bite your foot
We don't know bout stop
We know bout loss after loss after loss
It turnt you soft turnt me to a boss
A Survivor
Made of fury glad that it made me wilder
Cause the battles they made me wiser
Cover my locker in petrol and watch it light up

A product of my environment watch my walk out the flames

Turnt my back on the smoke look close you still the fire my gaze

Carry the torch for the town n use the light
To make it out the maze

When you born this hot you feel safe in blaze
Burning and I don't feel fazed

Arrdizzle the dog had a taste of the blood fresh wounds In the game
Now I want it all I can't be tamed until nuttin but scares remain

I can't refrain from claiming the fame cause look at how far I've come
Best wake up and smell my mocha

I got more than enough in my locker
Me I'm warrior
I feel like Rocky the moment he got up
This some champion shit
I just keep on landing
I know it ain't just bout all the bangs you hit
But I'm still here standing

We don't know bout stop
We know bout loss after loss after loss
It turnt you soft turnt me to a boss
A Survivor
Made of fury glad that it made me wilder
Cause the battles they made me wiser

Speeding ahead I don't need no visor

I'm soldier
Never looked up to an older

Bruv I got here off my own back

Payed homage to greats before me

Respect

I'm owed that

I neglect the throwbacks

But the stress it still rolls rand me that smell it just sticks

Just like the cigs that I got on my breath

I want all the smoke

Shit I feel colloidal like khali

They ain't got the same bottle as arrdee

Who else came in the game talked their shit

Actions backed like Muhammad Ali

That's what I thought

Somebody tell them man

To hang up their gloves everybody's bored

Plus

I got more than enough in my locker
